

Newcomers' Centre for Children and Families Referral Form

The Newcomers' Centre for Children and Families provides settlement and early childhood development services to newcomer families with children zero-to-five (0-5) years old who came to Canada as government-assisted refugees, refugee claimants and/or privately sponsored refugees. Community partners should use this form to refer families who would benefit from the centre's services. Families must live in Burnaby; regretfully, the centre cannot provide service to families who live elsewhere.
